Foreword

On the pages of this book is written the story of the happiest years of our lives. Only when we look back to these full days of living, working, and playing together, will we realize their true value. The Annual Staff of 1955 invites you to join us in reliving our experiences.

Dedication

To Mrs. Franklin, whose devotion, interest and guidance have inspired us, and whose enthusiasm and encouragement have helped to make our work enjoyable, we wish to dedicate the "Big Chief" of 1955.

The girls at Winchester.

Jim eating as usual

A college cow on the loose.

Need we, say more?
Florine and family.

We finally made it!

Three cool cats!

Food

Future secretaries.

School Life

"I want to speak to James, please."

A typical 4:30 A.M.

The girls amuse themselves by shooting crap! Roll 'em, Hazel!!

New York!

An informal card party.

At 8:00 A.M. on April 27 a bunch of lively and very undignified Seniors left for New York. Thanks to the generous people in this community, that is a trip we'll never forget. And neither will the elevator man in the Hotel Belvedere!! Maybe you can get an idea of some of the things that took place from the pictures on this page.

P.S. We went sight-seeing too! Honest!

Our jolly chaperons.

Boarding the bus for home.

On the bus headed for the good old South!

We never realized how dull Powhatan was.

Anybody for an aspirin?

Children must play.

Two "dears"?

Changing partners.

Candid Shots

Dr. Spencer; This is the strangest heart
I ever heard.

Junior antics.

Living it up

Ready for the big parade.
Our football queen.

A scene in the grade library.
Happiness at its height.

Class

Ah, play it, Nita!

Off to another basketball practice.

Please don't turn me in!

What's going on behind you, Janie?

Garbage to be loaded!

We, the Senior Class of 1955, being in our right mind, do bequeath and bequit, leave, give and get rid of the following members of the Senior Class.

I, CATHERINE ADAMS, leave my ability to pass each year by the skin of my teeth to Betty Joan Weakeley. I hope you can do a lot better than I did, Betty Joan.

I, NITA ANDERSON, leave the multitude of things that have been left to me throughout my school career to Betty Stuart Jones; and the ability to persuade Mr. Letson to have his picture taken, to next year's Photo Editor.

I, ANN BARDEN, leave my typing speed to Homer Zartman. Maybe some day you'll make the speed chart, Homer.

I, MILDRED BATTERSON, leave my ability to get along with teachers to Patty Racer. It's simple, Patty. You just grin and bear it.

I, KARL BOGGS, leave and I'll let Johnny take it from there.

I, JOYCE BRADBURY, leave my ability to argue to Walter McClure. It might not get you anywhere, Walter, but it's fun trying.

I, SHIRLEY COLLINS, leave my excess energy to Doris Adkins. It will keep you slim, Doris.

I, HAZEL CONDREY, leave my scholastic ability to Stevie Wright.

I, BOBBY COSBY, leave my power over women to Joe Gerken. Watch'em Joe.

I, FLORENCE EMERSON, leave my friendly grin to Bessie Tilman.

I, JANIE GLENN, leave my freckles to "oh, just anyone."

I, PHYLLIS GREEN, leave my driving ability to Mr. Norton. Watch those stop signs, Coach!

I, MAYNARD HALL, want to leave---"school".

I, WILLIAM HARDY, leave my height and red hair to Betty Stuart Jones. Maybe you'll get a man, now, Betty.

I, JEANETTE JACKSON, leave my quiet ways to Dorothy Allen in hope she can put them to use.

Bathing Beauties?

Enjoying our Homecoming game.

Will

I, CAROLYN JENNINGS, leave my ability to go steady to Gail Mann. It just takes concentration, Gail!

I, LEON JESSUP, need all I have.

I, BILLY KORNEGAY, leave all my many girl friends to "Jughead" Layne.

I, JEAN LAWSON, leave my ability to be heard at all times to Germaine Franklin. Just yell it out, Germaine.

I, GEORGE LEE, leave my, uh, leave my, oh, I'm just leaving.

I, NANCY LEWIS, leave my ability to eat and keep slender to Nancy Barden.

I, MAXINE MOORE, leave my mischievous ways to Janice Blankenship, that is if you have the energy, Janice.

I, BUDDY MOSS, leave my "he-mannish" looks to Frankie Gerken.

I, NANCY NICHOLLS, would leave my position on the basketball team to some member of the aquad, but I wouldn't want to wish that on anyone.

I, EVELYN POORE, leave my love for Ford convertibles to Betty Jane Willis.

I, RUTH STOKES, leave my basketball jumping ability to Ann Bodie. The secret is to take your feet off the floor, Ann.

I, JAMES THORNTON, leave my ability to leave girls alone to Gray Lawson. They're too expensive, Gray.

I, "DUCKY" WASH, leave my roving eye to Gray Jessup. The more the merrier, Gray.

I, RICHARD WHITE, leave the trouble I have keeping a girl friend to Ted Adams.

I, CLARK WORSHAM, leave my curly hair, dimples, and flirtatious nature to Buddy Daniels. What you couldn't do with these, Buddy.

I, JIMMY WRIGHT, leave my ability to stay up late at night to anyone who can stand up under the strain.

Now, we, the Senior Class, just leave.

It's 3 o'clock in the morning.
